Important! Being a missionary apprentice requires a great deal of maturity, humility and good people skills. Many young people struggle in these areas and need to resolve them before entering the AIM program. Many team problems and dismissals have resulted from those who were not truly ready for the level of expectations that will be required of them. Please honestly check any struggles that you have. Your references will be asked these same questions.

AIM is truly a life-changing experience. However, because of our focus, it is also very demanding. Students will be held to high standards in their studies as well as their character. As a result it can be very stressful at times. Anyone who struggles with authority, impurity, low self-motivation, or depression should wait another year and focus on those issues before coming to AIM. If you believe you are ready to serve the Lord as a missionary apprentice, please sign and return this form to the AIM office.

I have read the statement above and answered this form truthfully Signed: _____
